

PERFORMANCE PATHWAY SCREENING - FAQ

I HAVE MISSED THE DEADLINE FOR SCREENING WHAT DO I DO?

Unfortunately, we cannot accept any late applications.

AT SCREENING IS IT SKILLS OR MATCH PLAY?

Most of the screening will consist of match play with some game sense activities and skills

WHAT TIME DO WE ARRIVE?

Please arrive at the time of registration as indicated on the screening information. Approximately 15 minutes before the start of screening. This will allow time to register and to be netball ready (hair, nails, strapping etc.)

WHAT DO WE WEAR?

Please do not wear any club or franchise kit – please wear a plain white or black top, with black shorts / skirt or leggings.

WHAT DO WE NEED TO BRING WITH US?

You will need a ball, towel, plenty fluid and recovery food.

WHEN WILL I FIND OUT?

Within 48 hours of screening taking place.

DO I NEED TO APPLY IF I AM INJURED?

Yes, you will need to complete a screening form, so you can be considered for the pathway once you have completed your return to play.

DO I GET ANY FEEDBACK?

General feedback will be given on request after the first screening and more specific feedback after the final screening – both on request.

ARE PARENTS ALLOWED TO WATCH?

Where there is a viewing gallery, spectators are welcome. Please ensure that no parents are spectator inside the sports hall or immediately outside.
